AND WHEREAS by an Agreement, bearing date the 25th day of June 1869, and made between the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower, of the one part, and the Metropolitan Board of Works, of the other part, after reciting as or to the effect hereinbefore recited, and also reciting that the said agreement was entered into by the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower, with the knowledge and approval of the said Metropolitan Board of Works, to the intent that the commons or waste lands belonging to the said manor might be dedicated to the public as a recreation ground, under the provisions of the Metropolitan Commons Act, 1866.

And that the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower accepted the title shown to the said manor and premises, and paid the said purchase-money, and completed their purchase on the 17th day of December, 1868, having borrowed the whole of the purchase-money, with interest thereon, up to the 17th day of December, 1868, amounting together to £11,086. 19s. 11d.; from their bankers, to whom they agreed to pay interest on the loan at the rate of £5 per cent. per annum, and that the said manor and premises were conveyed to them by an indenture, dated the 17th day of December, 1868, subject to stipulations authorised by the said Articles of Agreement as modified or explained in an indenture, dated the 31st day of May, 1869, endorsed on the said conveyance, and that the Metropolitan Board of Works intended to take proceedings under the Metropolitan Commons Act, 1866, in reference to the said commons or waste lands. And that it was alleged by the vendors under the thereinbefore recited Agreement that the only copyhold hereditaments then held of the said manor consisted of a small tenement and the appurtenances formerly in the possession of one Livesy, and alleged to have been by him devised to trustees for the benefit of the poor in the parish of Streatham, and that all other hereditaments formerly copyhold of the said manor had been enfranchised, and that the commonable rights of the owners of such other hereditaments were, upon the enfranchisement thereof, extinguished and merged, with the exceptions of the commonable rights of a Mr. Phillips and a Mr. Brown respectively in respect of certain hereditaments, which were respectively enfranchised under the provisions of some or one of the statutes relating to the enfranchisement of copyhold hereditaments, all commonable rights which they respectively had previously had as commoners being reserved to them respectively. And by the Agreement now in recital agreed between the parties thereto as follows, that is to say:—First, the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower, in pursuance of the object with which they bought the said Manor, and to the intent that the same might be dedicated to the public, as above mentioned, would transfer their purchase of and all their interest in the said Manor, commons, and waste lands, under the thereinbefore recited agreement and conveyance and the endorsement thereon, respectively, to the Board of Works, and the said Board of Works would accept the transfer thereof upon the terms mentioned in the same agreement, and all the terms of the agreement should be considered as embodied mutatis mutandis in the agreement now in recital, the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower assuming the place of the vendors, and the said Board of Works assuming the place of the purchasers, in the recited agreement, and the said Board of Works should purchase the premises at the said price of £10,200, and should pay the same and all interest thereon already paid under the recited Agreement, and which should become payable for the loan of the said purchase-money and interest, to the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower, and should also pay the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower all their costs then already incurred and to be thereafter incurred in relation to the said Agreement and the contract now in recital. Second, if required by Board under the reference to the proceedings and expenses of the Board of Works Agreement now Board of Works Scheme as to the become payable and interests not exceeding the said or waste lands as said Act within Secondly, the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower should, if required by the Board, concur in the memorial to be presented by the Board under the Metropolitan Commons Act, 1866, for a scheme in reference to the said commons or waste lands, and in all consequential proceedings under such Act, and the said Board should defray all the costs and expenses of the said Beriah Drew and Philip William Flower, as well as of the Board, in relation to such proceedings. And the Articles of Agreement now in recital contained a proviso enabling the said Metropolitan Board of Works to determine that Agreement in case, at any time before a Scheme as to the said commons or waste lands should have been confirmed by Act of Parliament, the Board should be of opinion that there would become payable under a Scheme under the said Act, in respect of any rights and interests not comprised in the said recited Articles of Agreement, sums exceeding the sum of £4,000, or in case a Scheme as to the said commons or waste lands should not receive the sanction of Parliament under the said Act within three years from the date of that contract.

AND WHEREAS the exception referred to in the first hereinbefore recited Agreement was an exception out of the Agreement for sale and purchase therein contained of a piece of land and certain cottages not forming any part of the commons or waste lands of the said manor, and such land and cottages were excepted from the conveyance made by the said Indenture of the 17th day of December, 1868.

AND WHEREAS the stipulations authorised by the hereinbefore recited Articles of Agreement of the 10th day of July, 1868, as modified or explained in the said Indenture of the 31st day of May, 1869, and ordered by the said Indenture of the 17th day of December, 1868, are to the effect set forth in the schedule to this Scheme.

AND WHEREAS the commons or waste lands belonging to the said manor are delineated in a plan deposited with the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, and therein edged with green.

AND WHEREAS it is intended that the Metropolitan Board of Works (hereinafter referred to as "the Board") shall carry into effect the said Agreement of the 25th day of June, 1869, and take a conveyance to the Board of the said manor and premises thereby agreed to be sold, and shall acquire all estates, interests, and rights of a profitable or beneficial nature in, over, or affecting the said commons or waste lands, making or providing compensation for the same (if necessary) as provided by the 15th section of the Metropolitan Commons Act, 1866. Now it is proposed and provided as follows:

1. From and after the completion of the said purchase by the Board, the commons or waste lands delineated in the said plan and therein edged with green (in this Scheme referred to as "the Common") shall be and are hereby dedicated to the public as a common or recreation ground, and shall for the purposes of this Scheme be regulated and managed by the Board.

2. The powers of the Board generally, as to appointing or employing officers and servants and paying them under the general Acts applicable to the Board, shall apply to all such persons as in the judgment of the Board may be necessary and proper for the preservation of order on, and the enforcement of bye-laws with respect to the common or recreation ground, and otherwise, for the purposes of this Scheme; and the Board may make rules for regulating the duties and conduct of the several officers and servants so appointed and employed, altering such rules as occasion may require.

3. The Board may drain, plant, ornament and improve the common as may be necessary, and, for the purpose of preserving the turf and grass, may enclose by fences for short periods such portions as may require rest to revive the same, and for the further protection of the common may put up a post and chain defence against the straying of cattle along such portion of it as is marked by a dotted line in red on the said plan. No house or any other buildings shall be erected on the common, except such lodges or other buildings as may be necessary for the maintenance or management of the said common or recreation ground. The Board may from time to time erect on the common such lodges and other buildings as may be necessary for the maintenance or management of the said common or recreation ground.

4. The Board shall frame bye-laws and regulations for the prevention of nuisances and the preservation of order on the common or recreation ground, and particularly for preventing the deposit of rubbish on, and the illegal taking, cutting, felling and sale of turf, sods, bog-earth, gravel, sand, loam, clay, gorse, furze, fern, brushwood, trees and the like from the common or recreation ground. Provided that all such bye-laws made by the Board shall be in writing under their seal. And the Board may by any such bye-laws impose upon offenders against the same such reasonable penalties as they shall think fit, not exceeding the sum of £5 for each offence, and in case of a continuing offence a further penalty not exceeding the sum of 40s. for each day after written notice of the offence, and the Board may alter or repeal any such bye-laws, and may make any such other bye-laws as may from time to time appear desirable. Provided always that all bye-laws imposing any penalty shall be so framed as to allow of the recovery of any sum less than the full amount of the penalty. Provided always that no such bye-laws shall be repugnant to the laws of England or the provisions of this Scheme, and no such bye-laws shall, as against any person entitled to any estate, interest, or right of a profitable

Wales, and the Metropolitan Board of Works, or the Local Board, as the case may require, to cause or authorise the said commons to be enclosed, under the provisions of the Metropolitan Commons Act, 1866, provided the inclosure scheme be not inconsistent with the said indenture of the 31st day of May, 1869, or with the said agreement of the 10th day of July, 1868, and to act in all respects not inconsistent as aforesaid as lords or lord of the said manor in relation to such inclosure.
