

Fred Wells Gardens Management Plan

Fred Wells Gardens is a popular historical park providing the local community with a tranquil space to enjoy and relax in nature

This plan is intended to provide Fred Wells Gardens with its best chance to continue meeting the needs of the local community in addition to achieving the highest horticultural and environmental standards. Wandsworth has one of the highest numbers of council-owned greenspaces in inner London, culminating in over 300 hectares of public greenspace. Each greenspace has its own unique character, and each space provides the opportunity for a range of different activities for people and opportunities for biodiversity. The Green Flag Award scheme recognises and rewards well managed parks and greenspaces, setting the benchmark standard for the management of recreational outdoor spaces across the United Kingdom and the world.

Wandsworth Borough Council wants each of the five big greenspaces to gain and keep their prestigious Green Flag Awards. Whilst Battersea Park, Wandsworth Park, King Georges Park, Wandsworth and Tooting Common have Green Flag status, the aim is, from 2032, each one of the borough's smaller greenspaces will be brought up to Green Flag level. This management plan for Fred Wells Gardens sets out proposed plans for this park over the next 10 years.

Key Action points

Park management and contractor activities - Consider relocating cycle parking more centrally within the Gardens, station, consider options for improvement of alongside plant restoration schemes for a number of shrubberies and beds. Maintain new planting. Renovate paths where needed.

Biodiversity activities – Subject to community views seek to develop ‘railway thicket’ into a ‘wild walk’ and enhance the plant biodiversity here, remove the bramble and plant native whips, Consider Nature Trail e.g. bat boxes, wildlife pond, hibernacula, bug hotels.

Arboriculture activities –

Community engagement activities -

Development and funding activities - Seek funding for above community engagement and biodiversity additions.

Site Description:

Fred Wells Gardens is a small, partly fenced area with both a flat and mounded landscape. Some major site improvements took place in 2020 and 2021 to improve facilities and widen and landscape access points to allow for inclusive access and easy travel through the Gardens. Several very different areas are found in this small space - children's play, a tennis court, shaded and open grassland, ornamental and mature trees, formal gardens and seating areas and shrubberies. Paths run from two entrances in Vicarage Crescent to the centre of the park and then a single path leads to Orville Road. Informal paths have been created through two mounded shrub areas too. It's hilly nature along with trees and other vegetation, provide audio and visual screening from the nearby busy Lombard Road.

The site can be accessed from Vicarage Gardens. This entrance provides access for service vehicles. Vehicle access is not possible at this point, due to a roadside barrier just outside the gates. There is another pedestrian entrance on Vicarage Crescent and another on Orville Road.

The Gardens are bordered by mismatching fences along its boundaries.

The park was opened in 1982 and was named to honour a local philanthropist by the name of Fred Wells. There is one carved wooden 'Fred Wells Gardens' sign remaining that matched part of original wooden arches and signage at all three entrances.

The recently planted and existing shrubberies re generously planted to give texture, fragrance, shape and colour. Beds and borders not only deliver a backdrop of plants that provide good visual amenity but also that are beneficial for biodiversity.

There is a free to use playground for toddlers and juniors.

There is a free to use recently resurfaced tennis court that can be used by all age groups. Tree root barrier to protect tennis court surface People wishing to use the courts need to bring their own rackets and balls. If busy, teams can play for 40 mins and then change teams
